Relationship Remarks by Bob Thomas

I woke up this morning around 3:15 a.m. Just beneath the surface God was engaging me with important questions. Before this morning, three life questions have been well established for contemplation. The big three are: 1. Where did I come from? 2. Why am I here? 3. Where am I headed?

Question one has only two answer options. One is the secular educational standard answer. We are all the result of a huge "big bang" explosion, and we all evolved from a cosmic non-life swamp. The second answer is we are the result of the activity of a perfect, powerful eternal God. The second answer is the only sensible answer.

"Why am I here" is answered in the Bible and codified in the catechisms. Our divine purpose is to "know, enjoy & glorify God forever". Practically speaking, knowing, enjoying and glorifying God takes place when we become genuine, "biblically defined" followers of Jesus Christ in God's family.

Following Jesus becomes the foundation for how we live out our lives by God's will. "Where Am I Supposed To Be" and "What Am I Supposed To Do" and "How Am I Supposed To Do It" are essential questions for living our best lives. God knows the correct answer to these questions. We should never stop asking these God Questions. We function best when we apply His answers.

Churches should also ask these two questions. "What Am I Supposed To Do" and "How Am I Supposed To Do It". If they follow God's answers, they will glorify God. They will also be effective wherever they are planted!

Faith Free Will Baptist Church, Holdenville, OK

It was super nice to preach for their Sunday a.m. service. Pastor Earl Scroggins said "We have a revival scheduled for later this month. I think it actually started in this service today". The church is doing quite well. PTL! Zane Peters grew up in this church. He is now a ministry student at Randall University in Moore, OK. Every week he helps with music & youth ministry – right where he grew up! Nice story for sure!

Young Faith In Christ Banquet, Farmington, MO

The banquet was quite enjoyable. About 270 people attended. My job was to give the God Ask. It was "by far" their most effective banquet. According to the rough count, people donated over $32,000.00 for this wonderful regional youth ministry.

1st FWBC Revival, Farmington, MO

The preaching focus was JESUS IS - The Word, Light, Lamb. God With Us & God Coming For Us.

These John 1 sermons were brand new & beneficial for me. The Farmington FWBC is a blessing to the community. Pastor Roger Hogan has been there 35 years & counting. This is a strong, effective church, full of good people. I was delighted to be part of their fall revival effort.

A beautiful, historic church building with a new campus on the way
